SUMMARY OF ST. LOUIS MARKETS.

Yesterday's session of the Merchants' Exchange was about the dullest of the year, so far as speculation was concerned, though there was a good demand for the actual grain receipts, which were again large. As is usual at this season, especially if it so happens that no manipulation is in evidence, country traders are too busy handling the crops and getting them to market to dabbie in futures. This lack of outside buying interest takes Almost the only important item of news was a heavy increase in the world's visible upplies of wheat and corn. This had a bearish effect, but there was enough scalping at the close to cause a recovery of the early losses.

Corn was almost entirely neglected. Weather reports were mildly bearish, but final

Mrs. Johanna Fismer Lost Her Reason Over Son's Suicide. When the undertaker went to prepare for burial yesterday afternoon the body of William Fismer, who committed suicide Sunday night by hanging from the rafters of his home at No. 5745 Kennerly avenus, Mrs. Johanna Fismer, the mother, became irrational and said the body should not be irrational and said the body should not be taken from the house.

She became so violent that Mr. Frismer, the husband, sent for Doctor Charles D. Potts of No. 803 Easton avenue, who recommended that she be taken to the observation ward of the City Hospital. The daughter, Lucy, who is 16 years old, also showed signs that her mind was giving away from the excitement and grief stendant upon finding the boy's body, and she was sent with her mother to the haspital, where both will be held for treatment.
